Short event report

The first program held was problem solving in which our program coordinator Dr Archana Mishra explained the students about the problem they will face in future and how to tackle it.

For this a game called TRAFFIC JAM was played where students participated with full enthusiasm and had to solve the given problem in teamwork with the help of Jitendra sir.

Students had a great time from 10 am to 1 pm and could learn many things.

Report on celebration of 150th birth anniversary of Mahatma Gandhi

The NSS unit of MGM medical college had conducted a meeting on 26th September, 2019 to decide the programs to be celebrated in the honor of the 150th birth anniversary of Mahatma Gandhi. The students were present in large numbers. We had decided the following programs to celebrate Gandhi Jayanti:

1. Bhajan Sandhya
2. Essay writing competition on life of Mahatma Gandhi
3. Poster competition and exhibition on life events of Mahatma Gandhi
4. IEC activity on Environmental hygiene and plastic-free environment

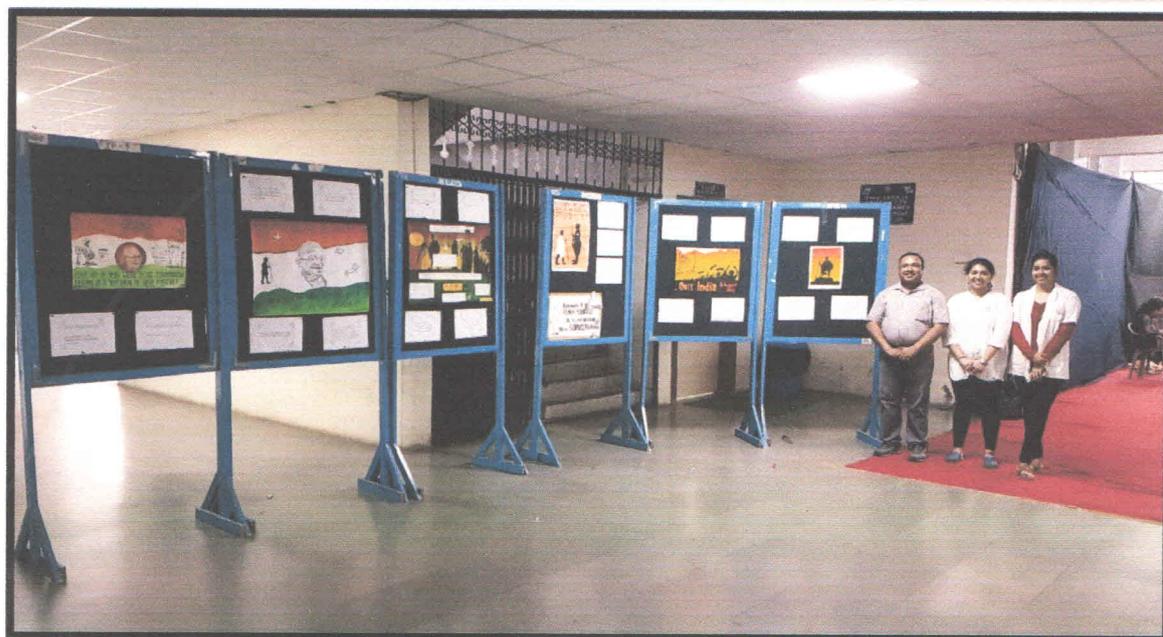

Dean, Dr.G.S.Narshetty sir had given all the necessary guidance and support for all the activities.

1) Poster competition and exhibition

On 1st October, the necessary arrangements were made for the above mentioned events. Dr. Pradeep Sawardekar had nominated the following volunteers for the program, Divya Chavan, Vaibhavi Pendurkar, Keshav Singh and an intern Dr. Bipasha Baldia. They selected the slogans and got them printed. They also collected the posters from the participants and arranged it on the stands for the exhibition. The students who participated in the competition:

1. Manasvi Thakur
2. Dishar Shetty
3. Sanjana Rao
4. Maimoona Khan
5. Vicky Kumar
6. Devanshi Yadav
7. Aanchal Mittal

Date: 2nd October, 2019, Wednesday

Time: 9-10 am

Dr. Rajesh Goel sir, Registrar of MGMIHS, Dr. Shashank Dalvi sir, Honorable Vice Chancellor of MGMIHS and Dean Dr. G.S.Narshetty sir, inaugurated the poster exhibition. Dr. Pradeep Sawardekar sir and Mrs. Rupali Gujar ma'am were also present to welcome the authorities and gave them a tour of the entire exhibition. All of them loved the organization and the message all the posters carried. The slogans were greatly praised and appreciated.

2) Bhajan sandhya

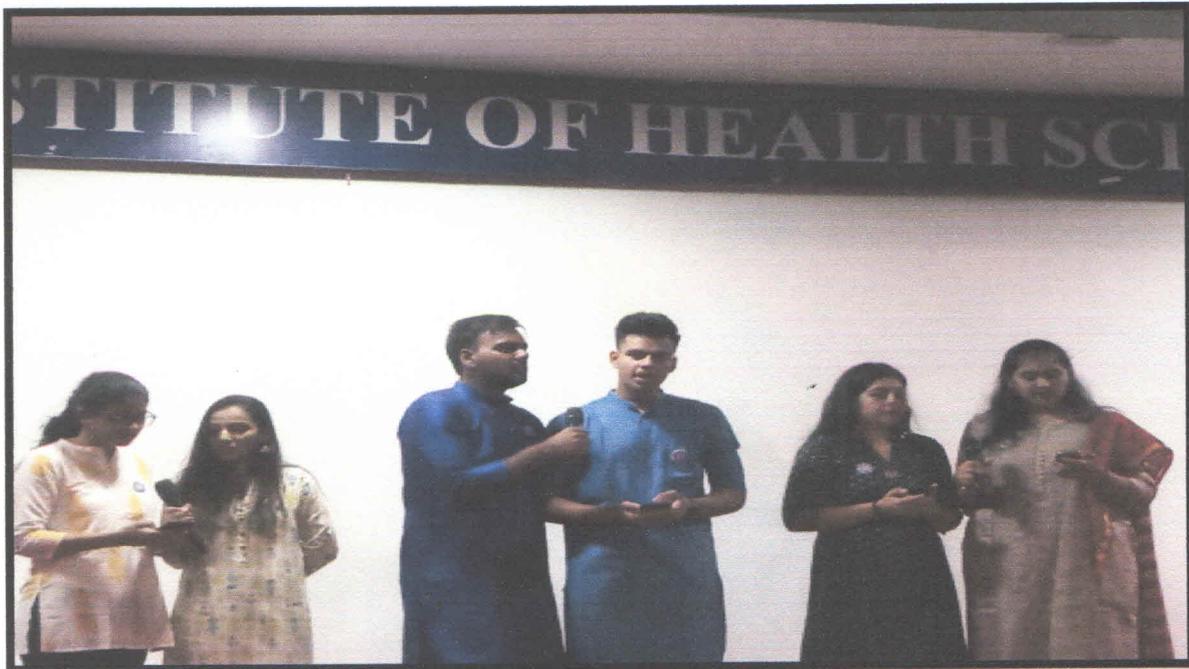

Date: 2nd October, 2019

Time: 10-1pm

The venue of the celebration of Bhajan sandhya was in the auditorium, MGMIHS. Dr. Rajesh Goel sir, Registrar of MGMIHS, Dr. Shashank Dalvi sir, Honorable Vice Chancellor of MGMIHS and Dean Dr. G.S.Narshetty sir, attended the event. The volunteers- Yash Sinha, Shalmali Raj, Pamisa Hastak, Mehul Varshney, Ruksar Nagpal and Smriti Venkatesh melodiously sang:

1. "ITNI SHAKTI HUME DENA DATTA", a bhajan by Mahatma Gandhi
2. "BANDE ME THA DAMM", a song that praises about Gandhiji's struggle for freedom.

Everyone immensely enjoyed the songs.

4) IEC activity on Environmental hygiene and plastic free environment

The activity was planned on 6th October at Chaul village, Taluka: Ravdanda, district: Raigad. The volunteers gathered in the college campus at sharp 7am and saluted the statue of Mahatma Gandhi.

Then they started with their journey for Ravdanda district.

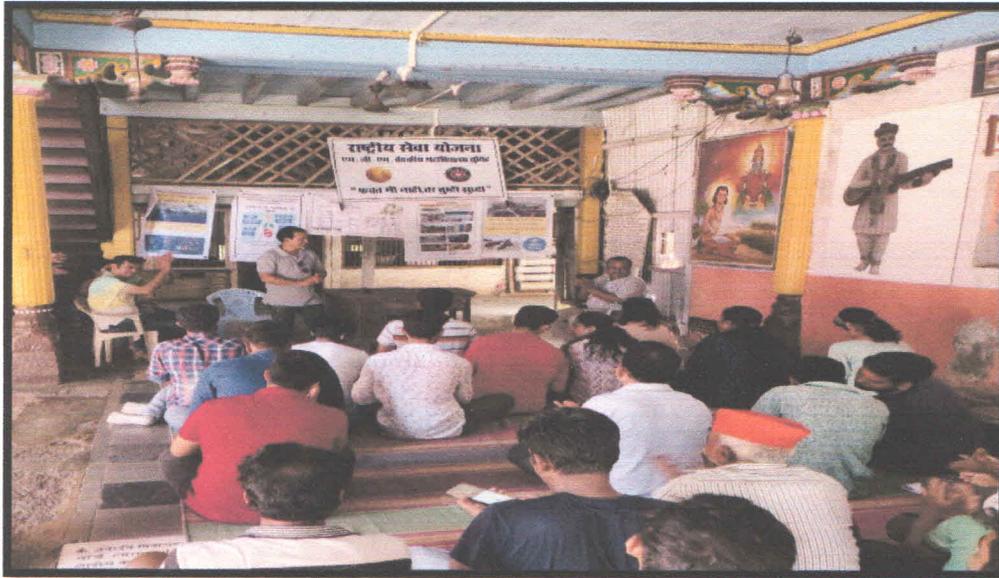

They enjoyed fun games in the bus and took short breaks on the way en-route to Chaul village.

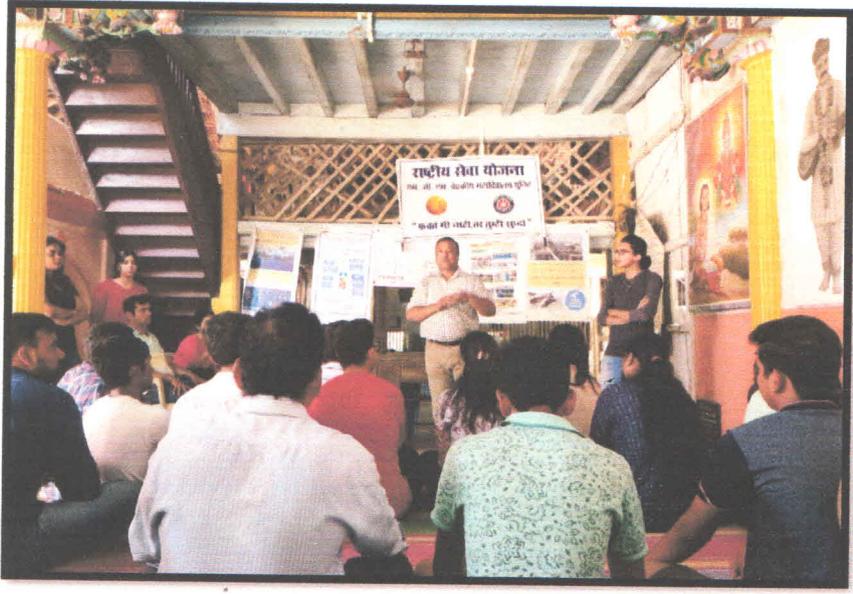

The students took utmost care to avoid any spillage and maintained cleanliness in the bus.

The event started with a warm welcome by the Grampanchayat member of the Chaul village, Mr. Atul Vartak for the discussion on the plastic free environment.

Dr. Pradeep Sawardekar sir along with volunteers, Miss Riddhi Gade and Miss Vaibhavi Pendurkar delivered a lecture on plastic- free environment.

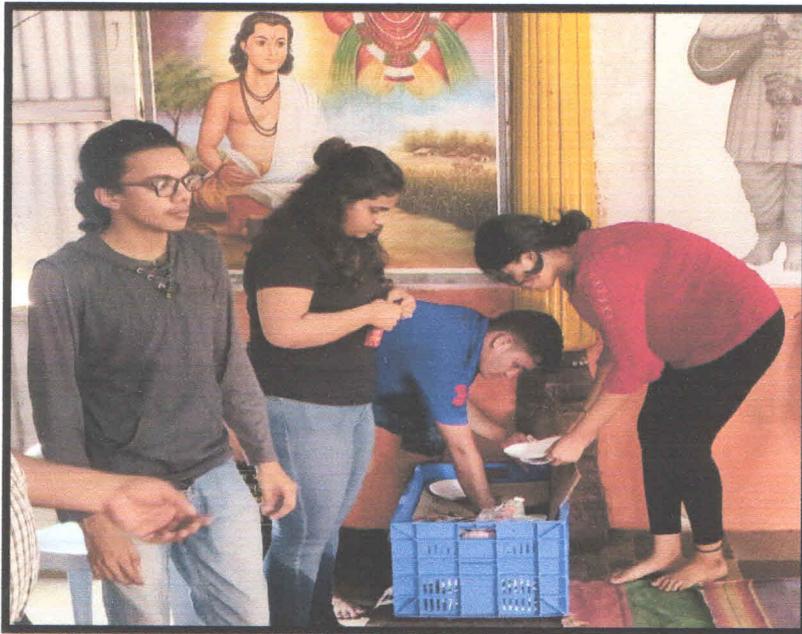

They covered the following points:

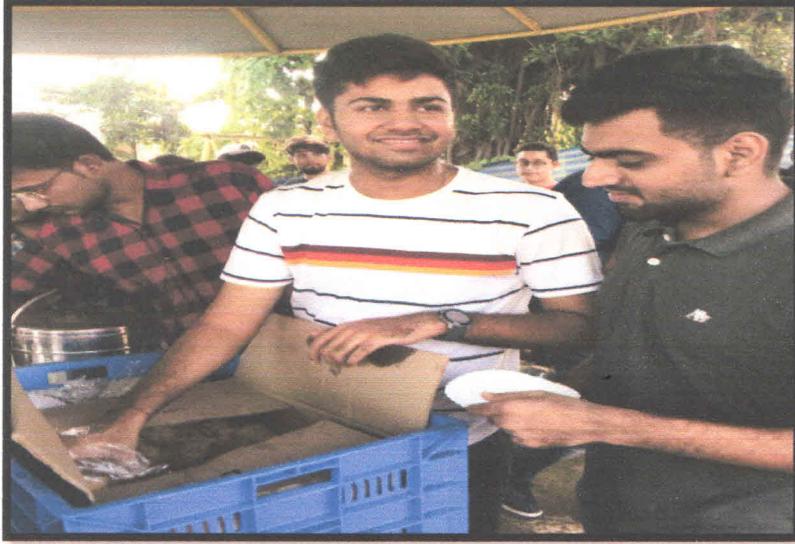

1. Ill effects of plastic on the environment
2. Health hazards due to plastic use
3. What is single use plastic?
4. Destruction and damage to the marine life due to plastic use
5. Alternative materials introduced by the government.
6. Methods to prevent use of plastic

The activity ended with a vote of thanks by Mr. Jeevan Urankar, assistant program officer.

At the end, the volunteers were served with snacks.

The program was a grand success and all the students enjoyed and actively participated in the event.

Human values celebration 7th May 2020

Buddha Purnima and Gurudev Rabindranath Tagore's Birthday

Where the mind is without fear and the head
is held high
Where knowledge is free
Where the world has not been broken up
into fragments.....

What you think, you become
What you feel, you attract
What you imagine, you create
Gautama Buddha

In this crucial time of fear and uncertainty, these words of Gurudev Rabindranath Tagore remind us not to lose hope till we achieve our goal. India has also been blessed by the presence and teaching of Lord Buddha who advocated eternal peace and to embrace the right way of living.

On 7th May 2020, we celebrate Buddha Purnima and the birth anniversary of Gurudev Rabindranath Tagore. On this day we would like to remind ourselves of India's rich culture and heritage and to imbibe their teachings in our lives.

We at MGMIHS are keen to have all the students promote this culture and will be hosting 2 separate e-poster competition in remembrance of Gurudev Rabindranath Tagore and Lord Buddha.

Students can participate in either one or both the e-posters competitions

You need to prepare a PPT with maximum of 8 slides.

It must include the following:

First slide must mention your details Campus, Name, Roll number, Program, Semester, Mobile No, E-mail id.

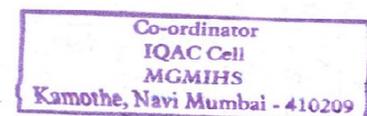

- o Human values that were unique to Rabindranath Tagore and Lord Buddha.
- o How were you exposed and influenced by those values.
- o Did you imbibe those values and if yes then, how have you implemented them in your day to day life.
- o If you are not practicing but want to, what will be the human values unique to Rabindranath Tagore and Lord Buddha that you would like to inculcate and develop and how would you go about doing it.

You can mail the PPT to iqac@mgmuhs.com Last date for submission is 11th May 2020

The best ones will receive a certificate and their presentations will be put up on the MGMIHS website

We look forward to your active involvement.

Short event report

On occasion of International Yoga Day which was celebrated on 21st June 2020 our NSS students of SBS MGM attended online yoga session of 1 hour. Total 10 students attended the session. Since Yoga has been studied and may be recommended to promote relaxation, reduce stress and improve some medical conditions such as premenstrual syndrome. It is particularly promoted as a physical therapy routine, and as a regimen to strengthen and balance all parts of the body. It was a nice session enjoyed by all participant.

Human values celebration 7th May 2020

Buddha Purnima and Gurudev Rabindranath Tagore's Birthday

Where the mind is without fear and the head
is held high
Where knowledge is free
Where the world has not been broken up
into fragments.....

What you think, you become
What you feel, you attract
What you imagine, you create
Gautama Buddha

In this crucial time of fear and uncertainty, these words of Gurudev Rabindranath Tagore remind us not to lose hope till we achieve our goal. India has also been blessed by the presence and teaching of Lord Buddha who advocated eternal peace and to embrace the right way of living.

On 7th May 2020, we celebrate Buddha Purnima and the birth anniversary of Gurudev Rabindranath Tagore. On this day we would like to remind ourselves of India's rich culture and heritage and to imbibe their teachings in our lives.

We at MGMIHS are keen to have all the students promote this culture and will be hosting 2 separate e-poster competition in remembrance of Gurudev Rabindranath Tagore and Lord Buddha.

Students can participate in either one or both the e-posters competitions

You need to prepare a PPT with maximum of 8 slides.

It must include the following:

First slide must mention your details Campus, Name, Roll number, Program, Semester, Mobile No, E-mail id.

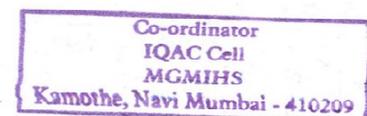

- o Human values that were unique to Rabindranath Tagore and Lord Buddha.
- o How were you exposed and influenced by those values.
- o Did you imbibe those values and if yes then, how have you implemented them in your day to day life.
- o If you are not practicing but want to, what will be the human values unique to Rabindranath Tagore and Lord Buddha that you would like to inculcate and develop and how would you go about doing it.

You can mail the PPT to iqac@mgmuhs.com Last date for submission is 11th May 2020

The best ones will receive a certificate and their presentations will be put up on the MGMIHS website

We look forward to your active involvement.

World Environmental Day 5.6.2020

MGMIHS celebration

MGMIHS celebration

World Environment day 5.6.2020

Theme :Time for Nature

It's time to protect OUR planet.

We were and are all too preoccupied with our personal lives and have got disconnected from nature. We cannot survive without nature which gives us food ,energy and all the resources we use. Human behaviour has destroyed nature which has actually given us life.We always look for ways to exploit nature. We now need to think of protecting it.

It is predicted that 1 million species of plants and animals are likely to disappear soon. In fact we are in midst of a crises where humankind is on the verge of a breakdown.

It is our responsibility to protect our nature and planet for the generations to come. Nature is a great gift, lets all nurture it together.

I request all the students to participate in the competition by sharing your thoughts on

- What does “Time for Nature” mean to you .
- How would you be able to make a difference?

It can be expressed as a:

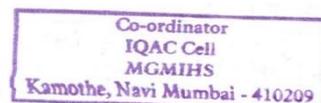

1. SLOGAN
2. ESSAY (Maximum of 500 words)
3. POEM

It can be done in any language for free expression of thoughts .Selected ideas will be displayed on notice board along with your names.

Kindly send the document to iqac@mgmuhs.com by 15th June 2020.
