During this period, her services were found to be satisfactory in carrying out the job duties, her responsibilities were to: - Direct coordinate infection control programme in hospital
- Instruct hospital personnel in universal specific infection control procedures
- She was performed daily surveillance activities and conducted audits for hand hygiene.
She is methodical and observant in her approach to the subject and can handle work pressure.

Her ability to analyze the given task is satisfactory. She enjoys good relationship with her colleagues. She can with stand the stress and pressure of busy work schedule, never remonstrate and is thoroughly dependable when on call.

I have no doubt that Ms Karishma will enhance any program that selects her and has a splendid future ahead.

She also bears a good character and conduct; I wish her success in her future endeavour.
