An event pertaining to ethical dilemmas that transformed your life.

Life is a beautiful journey and roadblocks or problems are definitely a part of it. No journey occurs deeply without any problems. My life is no different. I still remember this event that I would today like to narrate that definitely ~~is a part of~~ transformed my life. This was an event that occurred couple of years back. I was in school that time and was an innocent child at heart. I was surely unaware that how this cruel world works. Now when I look back, I still tremble in my eyes. It was on Friday evening, 3:00 PM the time for our school bell to ring. All of us were waiting for the school bell to ring so that we could rush out way to our house where we would go and narrate the whole day's ~~business~~ business to our parents. I decided to go to washroom, check the clock for the same and then rushed myself to the washroom. While I reached washroom, I started hearing some two girls discussing some serious topic. I accidentally heard them talking. I wasn't I heard checked me. I was heard that one of our friend was ~~about to~~ the school and was leaving without

An Event Pertaining To Ethical Dilemmas That Transformed Your Life

As rightly said by Pamela worries, the difference between moral dilemmas and ethical dilemmas is that in moral we have to choose between the right and wrong, but in ethical we have to choose between two rights.

Let me first tell you what I mean to say by an ethical dilemma. It is nothing but in simple words a conflict between two different morally correct situations. But sometime it is not necessary that both the situations are right.

Saying this it made me remember an incident of my life. I was on my way to college and was very late that day, when I went into the parking I saw a car standing really close to my scooter. As by seeing this I was quite sure that it is going to be really difficult for me to take my scooter out, I had no time to do that.
