Emotional Intelligence

Happiness through Enhanced Emotional Intelligence

Introduction:

Emotional intelligence (EQ/EI) is defined as an ability to identify, consider and control emotions in oneself and to recognize them in others, brought on by a combination of self awareness, self management, social awareness and relationship management.

Intelligent quotient (IQ) correlates with academic success but often fails to assure personal and professional success. EQ on other hand is a spastically significant factor in achieving personal and professional growth. While IQ is inborn god gift; EQ can be improved by learning strategies in areas of self awareness, social awareness and relationship management. Most of the professional courses including medical courses offer little to improve EQ of participants in this course.

Present value added course is designed to enable students/participants to lead a happy and fulfilling life by using strategies of EQ/EI.

VALUE ADDED COURSE

SOFT SKILLS DEVELOPMENT

LECTURE 1 – INTRODUCTION

- It seems like more and more of our young doctors are not working out as expected in private or institutional set up.
- They make very little effort to “fit in.” Does every single one of them think they are a “special case”?
- We often don't seem to appreciate that they are entering a pre-existing scene; joining an organization with its own mission, history, structure, rules, and culture; integrating with a group that has its own established dynamic; and engaging with individuals, each of whom has his or her own story and many of whom have been part of this scene in this organization for years on end or longer.

LECTURE 2 – THE STEADILY GROWING SOFT SKILLS GAP FROM OLDER GENERATIONS TO CURRENT GENERATION

- soft skills are mostly about “fitting in”—making an effort to conform one's attitude and behaviour to established standards of conduct—in order to engage and work together effectively with others in a shared enterprise.
- Of course, the older, more experienced people are always more or less annoyed by the attitudes and behavior of each successive new young generation
- Gen Z'ers are the first true “digital natives.” They learned how to think, learn, and communicate in a never-ending ocean of information. Theirs is an information environment defined by wireless Internet ubiquity, wholesale technology integration, infinite content, and immediacy. From a dangerously young age, their infinite access to information and ideas and perspectives—unlimited words, images, and sounds—is completely without precedent.

LECTURE 3: PROFESSIONALISM

Professionalism is something that is lacking in today's generation for a number of quite valid reasons-

- Being raised by micromanaging parents in a nuclear family
- Most of the current generation of doctors come straight from school to college to medical school to practice. Touch of real world is completely missing until one becomes a houseman or consultant
- They have become so accustomed to electronic communication that they are losing the ability to communicate well in-person.
- much of what older, more experienced people might see as matters of professionalism—attitude, self-presentation, schedule, and interpersonal communication—current generation is more likely to consider highly personal matters of individual style

LECTURE 4 : CRITICAL THINKING

- We just don't think on their feet the way they used to. We know a lot. But if we are not sure of something, we go right to their device.
- If there is not an obvious online resource to answer their question immediately, then they turn right to another person—whoever is available
- With computers, content providers, and grown-ups to do so much of their thinking for them, newer generation have hardly any experience digging deep, puzzling, and reflecting. They have a built-in expectation that learning curves are instant. They think of learning in small increments, filling skill and knowledge gaps as they run across them. The long learning curve is a rarity and a bit of a mystery to newer generation.

LECTURE 5 : FOLLOWERSHIP

- By the time we were growing up, "Question Authority!" was not a slogan anymore but a hackneyed cliché.
- We look at their relationship with any established institution, no matter how small or how large, and we think: "What do you have for me? And what currency do I need to use to get what I want/need from you?"

LECTURE 6: PERSONAL INTEGRITY

- Whatever you do in your career, always think about the big picture. All decisions have a knock-on effect on your career. Approaching your decisions with total integrity means that you will never regret anything you do.
- Having personal integrity does not mean that you don't have to develop a persona to represent the interest of your company, for instance, in the boardroom or during negotiations. It just means that this persona is integrated with your own personality. Therefore, your actions will seem authentic and more trustable.
- Living with integrity means that how you do one thing is how you do everything else. Therefore, you have no reason to feel any better or any worse on Monday than during the weekend. You must have seen at least one colleague of yours who comes in happily almost every Monday morning.

LECTURE 7: TAKING RESPONSIBILITY

- If you have the reputation of taking responsibility, people will value your contribution.
- Some people tend to blame others for their own mistakes. In most cases, those people have a hard time admitting that they made a mistake. Your weapon will be to act with integrity and take responsibility even for your mistakes. After a while, you will realize that making mistakes is essential in growing. If you don't make mistakes, you learn slower. If you are afraid of making mistakes, your contribution will be less valuable.

LECTURE 8: COMMUNICATION

- Communication not only complements all other soft skills, but it also enables you to take them to the next level.
- Communicating with others is not the only task that you should learn to be more successful. We will also focus on communicating with the person you spend the most time with in your life: yourself. Things you tell yourself determine your self-esteem, shape your self-image, and can make you more confident. You will not be driven by your fears. You will allow yourself to grow beyond your current imagination.

- When it comes to communication, most people give you universal rules such as “the first person naming a number loses at the negotiation table.” This theory is backed by information asymmetry. I have evidence to back up that in the path I am laying out, not naming a number first may more often backfire on you than you would think. It does not mean that it is always beneficial to name a number first, because some corporate environments may require you to play the negotiation game taking information asymmetry into consideration. However, assuming you advance to the top 5% of your profession, oftentimes you have enough leverage to bend the rules and earn more money.

LECTURE 9: TEAMWORK

- Professionals realize that they have to rely on other people.
- By taking charge and communicating effectively, you will be able to cooperate with your team better, for the purpose of solving meaningful problems better and faster than alone.

LECTURE 10: WORK ETHIC

- The code of a professional includes high standards when it comes to work ethic.
- Otherwise, the professional risks losing their integrity.
- Professionals learn how to work smart, take the initiative, and are able to cooperate with others when they need help.

LECTURE 11: LEADERSHIP

- By showing your professional attitude and taking responsibility, you encourage your team to adopt the same traits and become better people.
- Lead by example.
- Admit your mistakes, not to pretend that one is never wrong.

LECTURE 12 : MENTORSHIP

- Doctors look for mentors inside and outside the workplace.
- You can be a credible mentor even as a junior doctor. At least you have a perspective of telling others how you have overcome the difficulties of learning something new.
- A senior doctor can hardly recall past struggle with learning.
- You can teach others how to come up with professional solutions.
- Mentoring others is also a great way to fine-tune your own communication skills.

LECTURE 13: PROBLEM SOLVING

- The attitude of a doctor continuously challenges your problem-solving skills, as you keep working on meaningful problems in your career.
- A professional never settles for a symptomatic solution. A professional always digs more deeply to find and eliminate the root cause of a problem.
- Assuming that you get better at whatever you do on a regular basis, developing your problem-solving skills will be a side effect of professionalism and your integrity of wanting to become a true doctor.

LECTURE 14: TIME MANAGEMENT

- Another skill that seems to have little to no correlation with other soft skills.
- Assuming that you want to deliver a professional solution, it makes little sense to waste your time on things that don't matter from the perspective of your career.

LECTURE 15: EMOTIONAL INTELLIGENCE

- The more you develop your emotional intelligence, the better you become at essential soft skills.
- Emotional intelligence gets a lot of work done without much hassle.
- Emotional intelligence helps exceedingly in interpersonal communication and is really crux in soft skill development

LECTURE 16: ETIQUETTES

- Etiquettes refer to the customary code of polite behaviour in society or among members of a particular profession or group.
- They are extremely important in medical education and medical practice.
- Bedside mannerisms can decide whether or not a patient divulges an important clue to critical diagnosis.
- Etiquettes to be followed while interacting directly or indirectly with another medical personnel.

LECTURE 17: GROOMING

- While grooming may be considered by many as a less important aspect of soft skill, in practice, it can be very important how you project yourself on your patient.
- Most of senior doctors are always seen well groomed- for a reason.
- Tardy personal appearance can project yourself as lazy/ incompetent doctor.

LECTURE 18: VALUE OF SELF-ESTEEM

- Self-esteem is the act of respecting yourself. Opposed to some self-help advice, self-esteem is not about repeating "I love myself, I love myself," and it has not much to do with positive thinking either.
- Self-esteem is the immune system of your mind against stimulations of the outside world. People with very high self-esteem are virtually unstoppable. People with low self-esteem, on the other hand, are very easy to influence.
- Your self-image is often distorted by your own emotions. Today's world encourages you to choose a very easy and comfortable life. Whenever you find a problem, in the world of instant gratification, many sources encourage you to take a magic pill, claiming that most of the problems in life have been solved by someone.

LECTURE 19: PERFECTIONISM

- Many people think that perfectionism is a buzzword that does well in resumes.

- We should all stick to high standards in work, and in life. These high standards will never be perfect. Once you meet your standards, you have to calm yourself down saying, "I'm done; it's good enough."

LECTURE 20: COMBINING IT ALL TOGETHER

- A good, professional doctor is a good human being at his/her core
- Establishing work life balance is critically important irrespective of your field of work.
- Soft skills will determine whether your hard skills are of any use or not.

"REPORT ON BHARTIYA BHASHA UTSAV AT MGMIUDPO"

Name of the event: Celebration of Bhartiya Bhasha Utsav.

Purpose: 1. To create an awareness among learners, teachers and parents about the linguistic diversity and multilingual characteristics of India through language learning.
2. To highlight the need to focus on Indian languages for the development of the nation and "Ek Bharat Shreshtha Bharat".

Date: 17th December 2022.

Time: 11:00 am to 12:00 pm

No. of attendees: 15 students and 05 faculties.

PROCEEDINGS OF THE EVENT:

MGM Institute's University Department of Prosthetics and Orthotics (MGMIUDPO) had taken the initiative of organizing an event for celebration of Bhartiya Bhasha Utsav.

The National Education Policy 2020 highlights India's rich linguistic heritage, by promoting multilingualism and visualizing Indian languages as a great tool for national unity. It suggests that the students should be encouraged to learn the various Indian languages under the 'Ek Bharat Shreshtha Bharat' initiative. Bharatiya Bhasha Utsav will be celebrated on 11th December on the Janma Jayanti of Subramania Bharati, the great nationalist poet. Subramania Bharati, popularly known as "Mahakavi Bharati", was a freedom fighter and social reformer from Tamil Nadu. It aims to acquaint the youth with the inherent oneness of all Bhartiya Bhashas, i.e., the concept of 'Bhartiya Bhasha Parivar', the spiritual and cultural message emanating from the literature of all Bhashas, to celebrate the rich variety and wonders of Bhartiya Bhashas, to show how language learning can be a fun and enjoyable experience, and to highlight the need to focus on Bhartiya Bhashas for the development of the nation and "Ek Bharat Shreshtha Bharat".

The program started with an introduction of the event by Mr. Kartik Agrawal (First year BPO). He gave a brief idea about importance of Bhartiya Bhasha Utsav. First Year BPO students took an initiative to perform. They dressed up in their ethnic wears and expressed few words about their culture. Also faculties from MGMIUDPO came forward to share the information about their respective state from which they belong too. This helped all of us to explore more about different states of India. Students participated in this activity with full enthusiasm. They had fun and an enjoyable experience.

CELEBRATION OF FIRST INTERNATIONAL PROSTHETICS AND ORTHOTICS
DAY WITH PATIENTS AT MGMIHS CAMPUS.

Name: Celebration of First International Prosthetics & Orthotics Day.

Purpose: To motivate specially abled patients as well as P&O professionals to dedicate their knowledge to the society.

Date & Time: 2nd November 2022 10.00 AM TO 04.00 PM

No of attendees: 4 faculties, 1 Admin Staff and 22 Students of MGMIUDPO.

On the Occasion of First International Prosthetics & Orthotics Day, all specially abled patients of MGM Institute's University Department of Prosthetics & Orthotics (MGMIUDPO), faculties and B.P.O students gathered at MGM Medical College, Navi Mumbai.

To begin with, the department organized a poster colouring activity for all the patients and students. The flex poster was a huge canvas to be coloured, with the dimensions 30 ft length and 10 ft in height. The painting delineated that the field of Prosthetics & Orthotics is not limited to the human rehabilitation scope but extends further to the animals as well.

Everyone actively participated in the event and made it into a beautiful memorable artwork by use of various colours which depicted the gist of the day, that is 'Enabling and Empowering'. This helped the members of the community come close and interact with each other using a unique and flamboyant portraiture platform, which further enriched their artistic talents.

The students and the faculty also signed a graffiti which symbolised the love and harmony towards the field of Prosthetics & Orthotics.

The entire event was praised & applauded by Dr Rajesh B. Goel, Registrar, MGMIHS, Dr. G.S Narshetty, Dean, MGM Medical College, Dr Mansi Thakur, Director, MGM School of Biomedical Sciences, and Dr Savita Ram, Research Director, MGMIHS. They further took part in the event and interacted with the patients and students and appreciated the collective endeavour. Dr Rajendra Keshalkar (P&O), EC Member of OPAI, further enlightened this event with his gracious presence.

The conceptual idea behind this event was the work of Dr Sumeet Patil, Social Activist, Shrirang Charitable Trust. The activity was performed under the mentorship of Dr Uttara Deshmukh (P&O), Associate Professor & I/C Principal, MGMIUDPO. This day was celebrated as one of the best days in the Prosthetic and Orthotic community.

Value Added Course on Gender Sensitization

Introduction :

Gender of a person and attitude of people towards gender have very high impact on personal and social health. Gender discrimination, female feticide, sexual harassment and abuse are results of unhealthy gender attitude. This develops unknowingly because of peculiar sexual socialization. Only information about reproductive system will not be able to change this attitude as it involves de-learning and re-learning. There is need for proactive efforts to develop healthy gender attitude.

We want to introduce a value added course on gender sensitization which will deal with these issues and will help to find solutions. This course is in addition to inclusion of gender sensitization in curriculum.

Course :- Happiness Through Enhanced Emotional Intelligence

Introduction:

Emotional intelligence (EQ/EI) is defined as an ability to identify, consider and control emotions in oneself and to recognize them in others, brought on by a combination of self awareness, self management, social awareness and relationship management.

Intelligent quotient (IQ) correlates with academic success but often fails to assure personal and professional success. EQ on other hand is a spastically significant factor in achieving personal and professional growth. While IQ is inborn god gift; EQ can be improved by learning strategies in areas of self awareness, social awareness and relationship management. Most of the professional courses including medical courses offer little to improve EQ of participants in these course. Present value added course is designed to enable students/participants to lead a happy and fulfilling life by using strategies of EQ/EI.

Short event report

- Students of Optometry were provided with an auspicious opportunity of being able to learn and explore the world of the gifted kids on the occasion of World Braille Day, an international day celebrated on 4 January, 2023. The proficient team of Muskan foundation that specifically works for children with multiple disabilities, helped us being aware on importance of braille as a means of communication in the full realization of the human rights for visually impaired people.
- The session began with a brief introduction of the team members and their vision and mission. It was followed by a fun yet perspective-taking activity where the students were blindfolded with the help of masks and were asked to group in six with certain rules.
- Later the students were over-viewed about multiple disabilities and their lifestyle. Few short breaks to relax the eyes and students were asked to share experiences on how it feels being blindfolded. Further with couple of more activities and key points delivered, the team briefly explained about the disorders and taught us techniques that could be used to help people with visual impairment and multiple disabilities such as sighted guide which gives verbal cues, use of canes and it's types, seating technique in detail. Sign language and Tactile signing were practically demonstrated.
- The highlight of the day, Braille typewriter was demonstrated precisely and students were given hands-on experience. Various acts and rights of disabled people were addressed briefly. The warm success stories of them living a normal life were a delight. Ultimately, with the question-answer session and an effective message of being considerate of the person who need to know where they are, where you are and who else is present was shared.
- In conclusion to encourage others and help people with a kind heart.

Short event report

The Mumbai Optical Association organized an optical fair titled Optika Mumbai at NESCO, Goregaon East, Mumbai from 21- 23, January 2023. Students from B. Optometry and M. Optometry of MGM School of Biomedical Sciences visited the exhibition on the 21st, and 22nd of January 2023.

It was an International Exhibition witnessing exhibitors around the globe providing a platform for all the participants, delegates, business visitors, and others related to the industries to interact and explore new business avenues.

The venue was quite huge to begin exploring with, the stalls set excited students for learning about Brands such as Zeiss, Hoya, Optikum, Essilor, Rayban, Titan, etc. They were introduced to various instruments that were only book based once. The highlight of the exhibition was the newly launched myopia management lenses by Zeiss, Essilor, and Hoya. There were brands that promoted pediatric eyecare that was fascinating and relatable as it was linked to the ongoing syllabus.

We got to learn of technology that is ever-expanding and techniques that could help to dispense a quality pair of spectacles both as a mode of correction and management in a more efficient way.

New innovations such as Zeiss Visufit- 1000 were explained, which provided a wider spectrum of knowledge and gave a brief glimpse of what the future holds for students as an eye care provider in the cooperate and clinical sector. Lastly, after collecting all the possible key points and knowledge, an amazing exhibition came to an end.

Appreciated her for allowing me to ask questions for the entirety of the class and a good amount of students who didn't raise their hand to ask questions were checking for the instructor's knowledge in the field over. A group discussion was done by the MSc Clinical Embryology students of semester 1. The Anatomical topic "The Ligaments of Uterus" was discussed. They were inspired to do this group discussion to help each other study the subject thoroughly and make it easier to memorise by using the innovative ways of studying.

The educative videos were used to understand the topic in 3D View for those purposes we used the tools like projector and black board. The subject was made easier for them to understand using the labelled coloured drawn diagram that made us confident about the topic concept. Group discussion helped them to improve their thinking abilities, analysing capacity, listening and speaking skills. It also promoted their confidence level. It is an efficient tool to solve problems, understand the concept and evaluate personality.

This discussion helped them to develop closer bond with each other.

Shodh Shikhar-2023, annual International Research Paper & Project Symposium is a unique science competition event, where students, professionals and research persons of various fields present their innovative ideas and learned about various new technologies by interacting with other professionals.

This event has helped the students to enhance their practical skills, presentation skills and communication skills. 2nd edition of Shodh Shikhar-2023 was organized by Rabindranath Tagore University of Bhopal on 24th and 25th February 2023 for students, professionals and researchers. The delegates from all over the nation have participated in this competition.

The inauguration of the competition was done by Honourable Shri Manohar Mamtani, Head of Madhya Pradesh Human Right Commission. In his inauguration speech, he delivered a speech where he inspired all the research scholars by his life journey story and motivated to do research in the field of agriculture, Science, business by which India can be superpower in some years.

Dr. Subhasish Paikray from MGMIUDPO presented his project "Simple Cost Effective Laser Alignment Postural Device for Prosthetic & Orthotic clinic" and gave Power point presentation (PPT) on second day of event in front of all jury members. In his presentation he showed that, in the field of Prosthetics and Orthotics, alignment of all parts is very important for proper rehabilitation of a patient. The High Tech alignment devices are very costly which are not affordable by all clinicians. Also the alignment devices which are affordable are not able to provide good and accurate alignment.
