Topic: Sharing of Experiences of Smart Preparation for MBBS & Post Graduation – Dr. Iftikar Khadas MBBS, MD General Medicine.

Preamble

Guidance on study methods and recommended reference books is highly sought after by MBBS students. Typically, this advice comes from faculty and senior students. However, our aim is to provide a more comprehensive and up-to-date perspective by leveraging the expertise of our accomplished alumnus, Dr. Iftikar Khadas, who graduated from the 2014 MBBS batch. His exceptional academic performance led him to secure a merit seat for MD Medicine at JSS Mysuru, where he excelled and received a prestigious gold medal upon completing his degree in June 2023. In response to our request, he has graciously agreed to extend his guidance to our current students, particularly in the areas specified in the events. With Dr. Iftikar's valuable insights, our students can benefit from a truly enriching and well-rounded learning experience.

Venue: Physiology seminar hall, First floor, MGMMC NM.

Time: 10-11am

Date and Day: 19/07/23, Wednesday

No. of participants: I MBBS Students 2022-23 Batch: 130

Events:

1. The event commenced with a warm welcome and an introduction to our esteemed alumnus, Dr. Iftikar Khadas, by Dr. Rita M. Khadkikar. During the session, Dr. Iftikar Khadas shared his valuable insights on the following points:
 - a) He began by introducing himself and sharing his experiences during MBBS and Residency, which provided valuable insights to the audience.
 - b) Dr. Iftikar emphasized the significance of smart studying and effective approaches to clinical medicine while keeping the NEET/NEXT exams in mind.
 - c) He recommended specific books to refer to during the MBBS journey, helping the students excel in their studies.

- d) Addressing the bewilderment around various study platforms like Dams, Bhatia, Marrow, and Prep ladder, Dr. Iftikar clarified when and what to refer to from these resources for optimal learning.
 - e) Dr. Iftikar also shed light on maintaining a balance in life beyond academics, offering valuable insights to support the overall well-being of the students.
2. The event further included an address by Dean Dr. G. S. Narshetty, who provided encouraging words to the gathering and offered his support to the students.
 3. Additionally, Mansi Swami, an accomplished MBBS student from the 2014 batch, shared her views and experiences, adding further perspectives to the medical journey.
 4. To acknowledge Dr. Iftikar's exceptional achievements and contributions, a felicitation ceremony took place, during which he was presented with a certificate and a token of appreciation.
 5. The event concluded with heartfelt gratitude expressed towards Dr. Iftikar Khadas for generously sharing his knowledge and experiences, making the session highly enriching for all participants.

Summary:

Advice from Alumni Dr. Iftikar Khadas to MBBS Students:

1. Seek advice from seniors and faculty, but also be independent in making decisions about study methods and reference books.
2. Prioritize understanding concepts rather than memorization.
3. Attend classes regularly and with attentiveness.
4. Establish a consistent self-study routine, starting with 15 minutes per day and gradually increasing study time.
5. Engage in hobbies, sports, and activities to maintain a well-rounded life.
6. Enjoy quality time with friends for a healthy balance.
7. Participate in quizzes and other curricular activities to enhance learning.
8. While coaching classes can be beneficial, self-study with clear concepts is crucial throughout MBBS.
9. Extract knowledge from teachers, but take ownership of your learning journey.
10. Recognize that breakdowns may occur, but learn to cope with the support of friends.
11. Recommended books for all MBBS subjects were suggested.
12. Emphasize the significance of group discussions and focus on developing clinical skills.
13. Find a balance between curricular and co-curricular activities to lead a fulfilling student life.
14. Be patient and empathetic while handling patients, as it is a vital aspect of becoming a competent healthcare professional.
15. Express gratitude towards seniors, faculty, and family for their support throughout your MBBS journey.
16. Observe and analyze every case you handle during your studies, as such observations will help you understand the clinical side of MBBS and bridge the gap between theoretical knowledge and practical application.
17. From his experience he advised the students to decide beforehand in the UG programme regarding what they want to pursue in future.

Dr. Iftikar Khadas suggested MBBS students to stay dedicated, curious, and proactive as you progress in your medical education. All the best!
