Rabindranath Tagore- The Legendary Poet

The Poet still lives in our HEARTS!

7 May 1861 - 7 August 1941

The Indian poet was not just a writer but also a man of great talents. Rabindranath Tagore Sir is an inspiration to me because of his enthusiastic approach towards enlightening people's minds by his artistic quotes and human values. I totally respect our National Anthem writer and look forward to keep following him in the future.

Following are some quotes of Tagore Sir that have inspired generations and have changed the concept of living.

Quote 1-

-You can't cross the sea merely by standing and staring at the water

The quote shows up the essential value of hardwork that acknowledges minds of people and gracefully shows the beauty of work done by difficulty embraces you into a world of achievement and pride equal to crossing the seas.

This truly influences me by progressing even through difficulties with hardwork and ease. The seas never remain silent but yes there's a dawn surely possible each day! So according to me the need to success doesn't require only willpower but also hardwork to satisfy the need of pride and honour. Each day could be treated as a day of success though it may not be for sure. But this will help in having a better morning each day with less of conflicts and more of satisfaction and contentment.

Quote 2-

- Depth of friendship doesn't depend on length of acquaintance

A very true statement by Tagore Sir about the depth of relation we have with our friends. The acquaintance isn't a factor the friend needs to be judged upon.

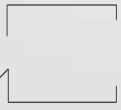

An old friend could compete the level of friendship to a friend made in 2-3 days. There's no definite limit for years of friendship. Though all matters don't point towards positivity with a new friend. An old friend can obviously understand you better as he/she has known you since ages.

I myself have recently found a person who helps me out a lot more than my old friends. I have termed her as my best buddy. And this quote stands out so true in modern day world according to me.

- Lets not pray to be sheltered from danger ; but to be fearless while facing them

As the corona pandemic has although caused danger in some people's minds. A very true quote by Tagore Sir that inspires us not be afraid of the danger but rather stay fearless and keep facing them irrespective of the hindrances.

-Music fills the infinite between two souls.

I love listening to music. Music has all tastes that have ability to enlighten our moods and fill the space between individuals. Listening to a song of our own taste seeks concentration in work more than any other activity that helps in focusing. I mostly listen to pop songs that help me feel better when im incomplete.

- I will never allow patriotism to triumph over humanity for as long as I live.

Humanity stands first. Its the duty of an individual to realise humanity in relation to modern day humility and selfishness. Theres humanity in a person that makes him reputed among all. No matter how hard we achieve anything in life humanity must be the last thing to fade away from a soul.

-I slept and dreamt that life was joy, I awoke and saw that life was service. I acted and beheld service was joy.

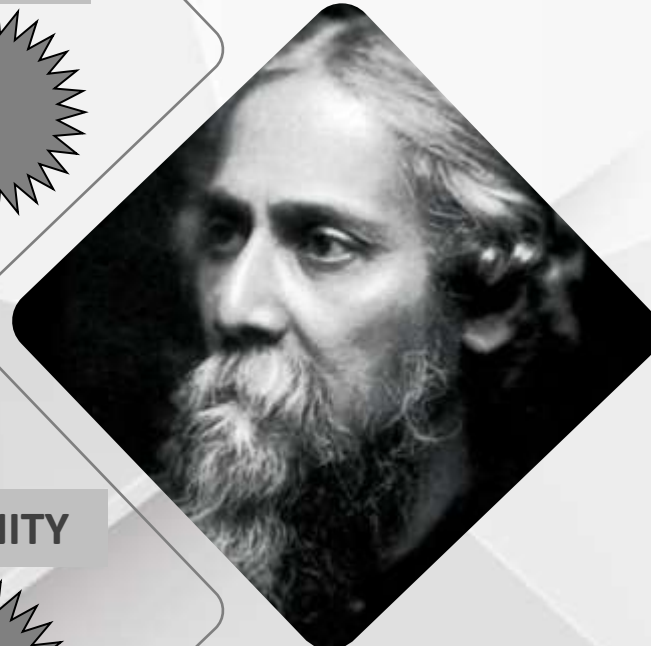

This is best quote of all. A person's sentiments are in place if he/she turns a hectic service life to joyful and peaceful occupation. Its not necessary everyone knows how to do it , but definately the one who finds how to do it shall live contended.

Sir will always be remembered in our thoughts and we all love and respect him!

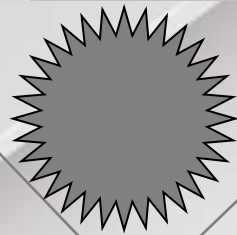

PRIDE

DIGNITY

Tagore Sir has opened up minds of individuals. He is a great inspiration to people living with dark thoughts. The legend has succeeded in revolutionarising the amateur Orthodox society. The modern day generation respects him equally as the people before because of his true and bright thoughts thinking with accordance to equity to both genders.

According to me the whole world must set an example to his thoughts and values he created for the people by following and respecting them. I would like to conclude by saying that the values I work upon make my living different and a peaceful world with grace and joyness throught the day.

Lastly a sketch by me.

I respect him and keep following his bright thoughts always.

Happy 159th
Rabindranath Tagore Sir
birth anniversary to all!
