Rabindranath Tagore (1861-1941)

Rabindranath Tagore, a poet-philosopher, the mastermind, preceptor, sage and unique literary giant and was one of the great religious humanists of 20th century India.

He was Asia's first Nobel Prize winner. He was awarded the Nobel Prize for Literature in 1913 for his book "Gitanjali".

Although most famed for his poetry, Tagore was a creative genius who played a crucial role in cultural Renaissance of India and Bengal in the 19th and early 20th Century.

As well as being a Seer poet Tagore's achievement included notable contributions in the fields of music, literature, plays, art and education reformer.

Tagore's songs are enriched with positive human values describing by identifying reality with eternal humanity or immortal man.

Rabindranath Tagore views on Human values....

- ▶ According to Tagore, there are mainly three eternal values namely truth, beauty and goodness.
- ▶ “Beauty is truth” and “truth is beauty” is an ethical ideal for the individual and for society. Tagore suggested that all ugliness and evil, imbalance, discord, disharmony and disproportion should give place to beauty and goodness.
- ▶ We therefore observe that Tagore’s notion of beauty as truth links aesthetics with ethics through metaphysics. These values-truth, beauty and goodness are made manifest in thinking, feeling and willing of man.

Rabindranath Tagore views on Human values....

- ▶ It is the apprehension of truth, the appreciation of beauty, and the direct contact with the ultimate reality.
- ▶ The said values are values as well as the three forms of the same non-dualistic absolute reality. Tagore claimed that these values are practical too. They represent the basic reality or truth from the metaphysical point of view.
- ▶ Facts in themselves have no value. But they are converted into value by man who is the meeting-point of facts and values, as well as ethics, science and metaphysics. This is the transcendental or spiritual aspect of life which is the most highly developed in his personality. This is the reason Tagore regarded human personality as the principle of unity. It is not individual but universality.

Some of His quotes that have great impact on my life....

- ❖ "It is very simple to be happy, but it is very difficult to be simple."
- ❖ "The highest education is that which does not merely give us information but makes our life in harmony with all existence."
- ❖ "Reach high, for stars lie hidden in you. Dream deep, for every dream precedes the goal."

Teachings Of Sir Rabindranath Tagore values in my life...

Sir Rabindranath Tagore values are the core concept of human existence has it as expressed it's worth in every individual including me.

His values have always embrace me that truth is always beautiful and will destroy the ugly lie, beauty resembles in every individual, the power of goodness, no religion is different, no culture is different and there shouldn't be gender difference as every individual as right and are unique.

His human values as always guided me to walk on peaceful path of life, whenever there is negativity around me just believe in yourself built consciousness which will lead to positivity around.

His values has always worked as psychological counselling and therapy for the one who have followed him.

Thank You!
